1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance of claims 1-27.

For independent claim 1 the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest a method of determining a relative speed between two separately driven members in an image forming apparatus, comprising the steps of a transport assembly including a first nip, driving a rotatable member associated with a second nip using an electric motor at a second transport speed which is independent from the first transport speed, detecting an electrical characteristic of said motor when the print medium is present in each of said first nip and said second nip in combination with the remaining limitations of the claim.

For independent claim 15 the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest a method of operating an image forming apparatus, comprising the steps of a transport assembly at a first transport speed to a first nip, a second nip at a second transport speed associated with an electric motor, said second transport speed being independent from the first transport speed, detecting an electrical characteristic of said motor when the print medium is present in each of said first nip and said second nip in combination with the remaining limitations of the claim.

For independent claim 27 the prior art of record does not disclose or clearly suggest a method of operating an electrophotographic printer, comprising the steps of a first nip at a first transport speed using a first rotatable member, driving a second rotatable member associated with a second nip using an electric motor at a second transport speed which is independent from the first transport speed, detecting an electrical characteristic of said motor when the print medium is present in said second nip in combination with the remaining limitations of the claim.

Claims 2-14 and 16-26 are allowed due to their dependency on allowed claims 1 and 15, respectively.
